For You By You

Sunday Reading and Reflections

Reading I: Isaiah 53:10-11
Responsorial Psalm: 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22
Reading II: Hebrews 4:14-16
Gospel: Mark 10:35-45 or 10:42-45

For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. Mark 10:45

"One of the things that touched me most was how much the families cared about their animals and how much of a community it was on each farm and in the larger farm community as a whole."

UD student reflecting on a rural plunge.

"When Sister Kathleen Rossman in Campus Ministry contacted me, I was a bit apprehensive about attending a grief group, but it turned out to be very helpful for me in dealing with my brother's death. It was great to share memories and experiences with other individuals who cared and shared a common bond of loss of a loved one."

UD student reflecting on a grief support group.

"You can meet complete strangers one day and feel like family within one weekend which is pretty amazing."

UD student reflecting on retreats.

"From this weekend I learned to listen to myself and live out my prayers."

UD student reflecting on retreats.

"I like being a Mass Coordinator because it is a small way to actively serve the larger UD community"

Quote of the Week

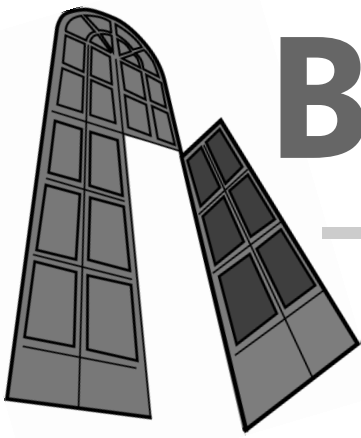

Chance is perhaps the pseudonym of God when he did not want to sign.

~Anatole France

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our goal is to promote awareness to environmental and humanitarian issues. They go to local schools to distribute educational materials on such topics and also participate in activities on campus and in the community to help improve our surrounding area.

Service Club of the Week: Roots and Shoots
